TERMS OF USE

I The Watercolour World

The Watercolour World Ltd (TWW, we, us, our) is a charity registered in England and Wales, charity number 1167968. TWW is registered in England and Wales under company number 10179857. Our registered office is Poplar Hall, Burns Green, Benington, Herts, SG2 7DB and our main trading address is Mercers' Hall, Ironmonger Lane, London, EC2V 8HE. These Terms of Use are governed by the laws of England and Wales and the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from them.

By using our website, you confirm that you accept these Terms of Use and that you agree to comply with them. Please also read TWW's Cookies Policy and Privacy Policy.

TWW provides the content on this website for your enjoyment and in support of our mission for the expansion and sharing of knowledge. We invite visitors to use our online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes.

II Copyright

This website is owned and operated by TWW and is protected by copyright. All content, including images featured within the website, related social media platforms and any other related promotional material, is protected by copyright. It is your responsibility to secure any permission or consent required for your own use of third party content and requests to do so may be emailed to collections@watercolourworld.org where they will be passed to the copyright owner.

If you believe that the use of our website's content infringes yours or someone else's rights, please contact us at collections@watercolourworld.org.

III External links

Our website contains hypertext links to websites that are not under our control. We accept no responsibility or liability for the contents of any third party site to which a hypertext link exists. You should therefore check the terms and conditions and privacy policy information of any hyperlinked sites referred to on our site before you use them.

IV Submitting your images

If you wish to submit your images for inclusion on the TWW website, please email them to collections@watercolourworld.org. We will include them in the project if they fit our selection criteria as specified on the website. To be selected, they must be images of pre-1900 documentary watercolours.

By submitting your images, you agree to allow us to use them in any way we may reasonably choose on a free-of-charge basis. They may also be used, reproduced, distributed and displayed in connection with our project, including promotion of our website and services. We reserve the right to remove any of your images if we believe that they do not comply with our Terms of Use.

To include your images on the TWW website:

- i) you undertake that you own the rights to any images you provide OR that you have a licence allowing you to submit any images you provide free from any encumbrance and in accordance with our below use of the images;
- ii) you undertake that you have obtained all necessary rights and permissions for us to upload any images you submit (whether you own these or are licensee of the images) and that our use of the images in accordance with the below will not infringe the rights of any third party;
- iii) we seek no rights to the images in any capacity, other than the right to upload, display and store them on the website;
- iv) we will not include any features that enable users to download the images;
- v) the images will be credited to you on our website (or may be published anonymously if preferred);
- vi) we will not monetise the website or content in any way;
- vii) you may request removal of your images from the site at any time.

If you do not want to grant us permission to use your images in accordance with our Terms of Use, please do not share them with or submit them to The Watercolour World.

COOKIE POLICY

Like most websites, ours uses cookies. Cookies are small text files stored on your computer by your browser. They're used for many things, such as remembering whether you've visited the site before or to help us work out how many new website visitors we get each month.

The cookies we use are 'analytical' cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around the site when they're using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example by making sure users are finding what they need easily.

We are not able to personally identify you using your data.

PRIVACY POLICY

We are committed to preserving the privacy of all visitors to our website. Please read the following Privacy Policy to understand how we use and protect information that you provide as a result of submitting your images. By submitting your images, you consent to the collection, use and transfer of your information under the terms of this policy. If after reviewing this policy you have any questions or privacy concerns please send a letter to our trading address given in Section 1.

You do not need to register to access the website and view the content.

If you submit your images you will be required to provide your name and email address. We may use your email address to notify you with or for information related to your submission but you can opt out of emails at any time by notifying us at collections@watercolourworld.org under the subject 'Email opt-out'. We are not able to personally identify you using your data and will not pass your data to any other organisation unless required to do so by law, for example if a claim is made that your contribution violates the third party's intellectual property rights, or their right to privacy.

The Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time, so please check back frequently to see any updates or changes.
